Board Position Application

Positions on the OHA Board of Directors are open to any qualified applicant. The board is composed of seven volunteers, and all members are required to stand for re-election at the annual general meeting each year. This is a working board, and each director is expected to undertake responsibility for at least one functional area within the OHA. Positions are discussed and chosen during the first board meeting following an AGM.. Vacant positions may be filled on an interim basis, to be confirmed at the following AGM..
